OUR JEWISH NEIGHBOURS St James Church has had a long connection to the Jewish community, with the Synagogue in Highfield Street, and Neve Shalom in The Avenue; Angela Jagger is the Chair of the Leicester branch of the Council of Christians and Jews (CCJ). On Being Jewish - A Christians Aware course could be a good way for members of St James to strengthen that link. Please take a leaflet from the table at the back of church.

FAITH AND FANTASY Our three week series of discussions exploring spirituality in the Narnia series, the world of Tolkien and in Harry Potter continues on Thursdays at 7.30pm in the Church. Light Refreshments are available. Suitable for both adults and older children.

HOW TO MAKE A DONATION TO ST JAMES THE GREATER

It costs over £350 a day (not including major building works) to run St James the Greater! Your gift is a vital contribution to the costs of ministry and maintenance of this fabulous place of worship. Please be as generous as your means allow. Information on methods of giving are detailed in the leaflet on the back table or please ask a Church Warden/call the Church Office for further information.

CONCERTS AT ST JAMES

Casualties of War To mark the Centenary of Armistice Day, Richard Roddis and friends present a commemorative programme of songs and readings. Rather than focussing on the conflict, this recital highlights the talent of the British composers and poets who like so many others left to fight but never returned. It also celebrates the rural landscape of England which they held so dear and which they died defending.

Composers: George Butterworth, Gerald Finzi, W Denis Browne and Ernest Farrar. Poets: Edward Thomas, Rupert Brooke, Wilfred Owen, Francis Ledwidge. Plus straddling the two art-forms Ivor Gurney who survived.

Sunday 11 November 2018 at 3pm Tickets £10 on the door

Ex Cathedra are returning with their 2018 Christmas by Candlelight concert on Thursday 6 December. Information flyers are at the back of the Church.

Please see the Church website or call the Church Office for more details or to purchase tickets.
