Prayer for the Week

Almighty Father,
whose will is to restore all things
in your beloved Son, the King of all:
govern the hearts and minds of those in authority,
and bring the families of the nations,
divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin,
to be subject to his just and gentle rule;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

CONCERTS AT ST JAMES

Casualties of War To mark the Centenary of Armistice Day, Richard Roddis and friends present a commemorative programme of songs and readings. Rather than focussing on the conflict, this recital highlights the talent of the British composers and poets who like so many others left to fight but never returned. It also celebrates the rural landscape of England which they held so dear and which they died defending.

Composers: George Butterworth, Gerald Finzi, W Denis Browne and Ernest Farrar. Poets: Edward Thomas, Rupert Brooke, Wilfred Owen, Francis Ledwidge. Plus straddling the two art-forms Ivor Gurney who survived.

Sunday 11 November 2018 at 3pm Tickets £10 on the door

Appassionato - A Recital of Music for Violin and Piano Amalia Young and Bryan Evans will present a recital of classical music for violin and piano on Sunday 18 November at 2.30pm. Amalia is a former member of the Choir of St James the Greater, now studying at the Royal Academy of Music in London. Music includes Francis Poulenc's Violin Sonata, J.S. Bach's G minor solo Sonata, Subito by Witold Lutoslawski and Sonata No. 3 for Violin and Piano by Herbert Howells. Tickets are £8 / £5 conc. from the St James the Greater website and on the door.

Ex Cathedra are returning with their 2018 Christmas by Candlelight concert on Thursday 6 December. These popular concerts are aimed at the heart of Christmas. Much-loved favourites, little-known gems and stunning new works are accompanied by a selection of readings, which together capture the meaning - and humour - of the season. Information flyers are at the back of the Church.

Please see the Church website or call the Church Office for more details and to purchase tickets £10-£30. Advanced booking is advised.
