Prayer for the Week

O God the King of glory, you have exalted your only Son Jesus Christ with great triumph to your kingdom in heaven: we beseech you, leave us not comfortless, but send your Holy Spirit to strengthen us and exalt us to the place where our Saviour Christ is gone before, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

WANDERING SOUL One of Britain's most important collections of modern religious art is being shown at venues in Leicestershire until Pentecost, accompanied by a series of workshops and events. Thanks to a joint project between the Church of England's Leicester Cathedral and the Methodist Church, the Methodist Modern Art Collection will be on display from May 2 until June 9 and has inspired a programme of creative opportunities for the public. This unique collection of art featuring biblical themes and narrative has toured the UK and abroad since its inception more than 50 years ago. It is said to be the most extensive religious art collection outside of the Vatican. There are more than 45 works, including some by well-known artists such as Graham Sutherland, Elisabeth Frink, William Roberts, Patrick Heron and most recently Maggi Hambling. Venues for the exhibition, which will each host different artworks, are Leicester Cathedral, Bishop Street Methodist Church, St Nicholas Church, and St Andrew's Church all in Leicester city. A booklet linked to this to cover the nine days of www.wonderingsoul.co.uk.
