OPENING HYMN 630Father, Lord of all creation*READINGJeremiah 11.18-20 read by Andrew Curry

¹⁸ It was the LORD who made it known to me, and I knew;
then you showed me their evil deeds.

¹⁹ But I was like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter.

And I did not know it was against me
that they devised schemes, saying,

‘Let us destroy the tree with its fruit,
let us cut him off from the land of the living,
so that his name will no longer be remembered!’

²⁰ But you, O LORD of hosts, who judge righteously, who try the heart and the mind,
let me see your retribution upon them,
for to you I have committed my cause.

GRADUAL HYMN 580Judge eternal, throned in splendour*GOSPEL

Mark 9.30-37

³⁰ They went on from there and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; ³¹for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, ‘The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again.’ ³²But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him.

³³ Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, ‘What were you arguing about on the way?’ ³⁴But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another about who was the greatest. ³⁵He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, ‘Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all.’ ³⁶Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, ³⁷‘Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me.’

The Vicar Writes ...

Today, as we remember the valiant “few” we enter a season of remembrance. At the end of October at All Saints and All Souls we remember both the heroes of the faith and also the lost loved ones known to us. Then in November we keep Remembrance Sunday. In all our remembering, perhaps more poignant than ever after our losses of the last 18 months, we know that the eternal remembrance of God is greater, as the eternal life He promises is more than a memory.

YOUR GIVING TO ST JAMES Did you know that in a normal year over 35% of the church's income is made up of regular Direct Debits and Standing Orders from members of the congregation?

If you already give by Direct Debit or Standing Order, thank you! Of course, if you are able to increase the amount you give, that would be very welcome. We do not hold Gift Aid declarations for some people and if this applies to you, we will be in touch to ask if you can fill one in for us.

If you are not already a regular giver, please consider starting a Direct Debit through the Church of England's Parish Giving Scheme. They offer a very friendly service and will help you set everything up over the phone. They make sure that Gift Aid tax relief is claimed (this adds 25p to every £1 that you give), and they pass every penny of your donation straight through to St James the Greater. You can contact the Parish Giving Scheme on 0333 002 1271 (local call rates).
